LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

IBA C. POST, of Harrison county, is the wit of the House.

WHAT causes the delay in the organization of the "Third House."

SIXTY-POUR bills have been introduced in the Senate and more to come.

DELEGATE BUTCHER, of Wood county, is the youngest member of the House.

CLERK PEYTON'S past experience facilitates business considerably in the House. BUTCHER, of Wood county, wants a branch normal school for colored persons in this State.

BARLOW, Wilson, Primrose and West will annuse the Legislature to-night at the Opera House.

The two Houses adjourn at noon in order to give the standing committees an op-der to give the standing committees an op der to give the standing committees an opportunity to work.

Delegate Joenson, of Harrison county, wants the "whipping post" resolution rejected now and forever.

When compared with each other, it will be seen that a number of the bills offered in both Houses are exactly alike.

Post wants our Representative in Congress to secure appropriations to improve every stream in the State navigable for fish.

BILLS.

The following bills were introduced and referred:

By Mr. Arnold: House bill No. 41, in relation to work on county roads.

By Mr. Hyer: House bill No. 42, to require the advertisement of real estate when decreed to be sold by courts.

By Mr. Reynolds: House bill No. 43, to create an independent school district in Fetterman district in the county of Tay-lor. separate estate, at law as well as in equity. The proposed amendment is a good one.

Court of the United States to be therein tried, from which court no appeal lies to the Supreme Court of the United States, by reason of the amount in controversy not exceeding the sum of $5,000, and in all such cases the rulings of the Judge of the United States Circuit Court are final. All Judges are liable to mistakes and errors of judgment, and there should be some measures adopted by which their proceedings can be reviewed by an appellate court, and reversed for any manifest error. It is not the object of our government to give to any one man, an absolute or arbitrary power.

The only manner in which this difficulty can be obviated is by a change in the 8th section of the 103d chapter of the Code, increasing the amount sufficient to allow all such cases to be appealed to the United States Court.
